To Whom it May Concern
In reply to your letter of 08/10/2004.

To my knoulage I complied with all of the regulations set out 9in the aplication for a patent . I am trying to do this on my oun as an atterny costs to much to do the same work.

What I cannot fiure out what seems to be wrong with the aplication. I had the drawings done profecionaly, I think I signed all of the forms needed, as for claims there should have been some with the aplication. I would like to know what else I have to do shortly so we can get this patent going ahead as planed.

There should be a simple set of instrustions and a check list for a person that is aplying for a patent or trademark on their oun and ont through an atterny .

Regards

John Leask
